Bill Analysis

SB 1024 prohibits the adoption of a proposed rule by an agency unless the agency receives approval from the Governor or appropriate cabinet secretary. The measure requires the rule impact statement to include an analysis of alternatives to adopting the proposed rule, estimates on the amount of time that would be spent by state employees to develop the rule, the amount of other resources that would be utilized to develop the rule, and a summary as well as a preliminary comparison of any existing or proposed federal regulations that are intended to address the activities to be regulated by the proposed rule.

House Amendments

HA's to SB 1024 completely substitutes engrossed language with the language described above.
