Bill No.:	SB 924
Version:	INT
Request No.	396
Author:	Sen. Coleman
Date:	01/22/2025

Bill Analysis

SB 924 modifies provisions of the Employment Security Act of 1980. The measure authorizes the Employment Security Commission to alter appeal filing requirements to respond to significant economic situations wherein evidence suggests potential fraudulent activity. The measure provides that failure to name the Board of Review, Oklahoma Employment Security Commission, and all parties proceeding before the Board of Review as codefendants shall be deemed a jurisdictional defect.
